Management Comments on First Quarter Performance

“New Mountain’s strategy of investing in defensive sectors positions NMFC for continued success in what has become a more volatile operating environment,” said Steven B. Klinsky, NMFC Chairman and New Mountain Capital CEO. “We believe that, relative to other credit funds, NMFC is notably well positioned for tariff and other political issues.”

John R. Kline, NMFC CEO, added: “NMFC maintained strong credit performance in Q1, with over 96% of the portfolio rated green. Looking ahead, we remain confident in NMFC’s ability to deliver consistent yield with an enhanced margin of safety. Additionally, we have made meaningful progress on our strategic priorities including PIK reduction, diversifying our top investments and reducing the cost of our liabilities.”

Portfolio and Investment Activity⁵

As of March 31, 2025, the Company’s NAV¹ was $1,342.2 million and its portfolio had a fair value of $3,047.7 million of investments in 119 portfolio companies, with a weighted average YTM at Cost⁶ of approximately 10.2%. For the three months ended March 31, 2025, the Company originated $120.8 million of investments², offset by $160.4 million of repayments² and $26.3 million of asset sales.

Portfolio and Asset Quality

NMFC’s mandate is to primarily target businesses in the middle market that, consistent with New Mountain’s private equity platform, are high quality, defensive growth companies in industries that are well-researched by New Mountain. The Company’s focus is on defensive growth businesses that generally exhibit the following characteristics: (i) acyclicity, (ii) sustainable secular growth drivers, (iii) niche market dominance and high barriers to competitive entry, (iv) recurring revenue and strong free cash flow, (v) flexible cost structures and (vi) seasoned management teams.

The Company monitors the performance and financial trends of its portfolio companies on at least a quarterly basis. The Company attempts to identify any developments within the portfolio company, the industry, or the macroeconomic environment that may alter any material element of the Company’s original investment strategy. As described more fully in the Company’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, the portfolio monitoring procedures are designed to provide a simple, yet comprehensive analysis of the Company's portfolio companies based on their operating performance and underlying business characteristics, which in turn forms the basis of its Risk Rating. The Risk Rating is expressed in categories of Green, Yellow, Orange and Red with Green reflecting an investment that is in-line with or above expectations and Red reflecting an investment performing materially below expectations.

The following table shows the Risk Rating of the Company's portfolio companies as of March 31, 2025:

Risk Rating	As of March 31, 2025
	Cost	Percent	Fair Value	Percent	Weighted Average Mark
Green ⁷	$ 2,942.2	94.3%	$ 2,939.1	96.5%	96.4%
